Weigh in on the Skid Row Neighborhood Council Subdivision Election

Under a new provision to the Neighborhood Council enabling legislation allowing for the subdivision of existing Neighborhood Councils, a new Neighborhood Council is being proposed: The Skid Row Neighborhood Council (SRNC).

Currently, DTLA has two Neighborhood Councils: Downtown Los Angeles Neighborhood Council (DLANC) and the Historic Cultural Neighborhood Council (HCNC).

The Skid Row Neighborhood Council must be approved by DTLA stakeholders. There are 3 ways to vote: online, in person at pop-up polls and in-person on Election Day, April 6.

All DTLA stakeholders should weigh in on this proposal as it will remove the Skid Row neighborhood from DLANC and HCNC. This election is open to voters who are stakeholders within the boundaries of DLANC or HCNC. The map can be viewed here.
